

Germany

Permanent Member of the UN Security Council

Location	Central Europe
Population	83 million
Capital	Berlin
Language	German
Religions	Christians (57%), Non-religious (37%), Muslims (5%)

1. International Relations

Germany is a founding member of the European Union and a permanent observer at the United Nations. As one of the world's largest economies, Germany plays a central role in international diplomacy and conflict resolution.

2. Position on the Conflict

Germany strongly supports a two-state solution to the conflict. It advocates for peaceful negotiations and calls on all parties to respect international law and human rights obligations.

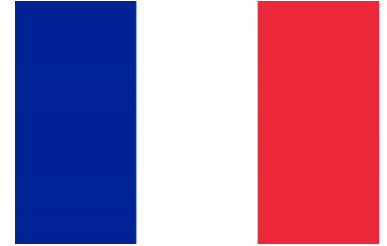

Security and Stability

Germany believes that lasting peace can only be achieved through dialogue and mutual recognition. It supports UN peacekeeping missions and humanitarian aid efforts in the region.

France

Permanent Member of the UN Security Council

Location	Western Europe
Population	68 million
Capital	Paris
Language	French
Religions	Christians (50%), Non-religious (40%), Muslims (8%)

1. International Relations

France is a permanent member of the UN Security Council and a leading voice in European and global affairs. France maintains close diplomatic ties across the Middle East and North Africa.

2. Position on the Conflict

France supports an immediate ceasefire and the resumption of direct negotiations. It has historically backed a two-state solution and the creation of a Palestinian state based on the 1967 borders.